

Explanation of Logo design: This logo encompasses the combination gender equality embedded in Science and Technology. The backbone of GATI scheme is empowering women equal to men which paves way for infinite new possibilities and avenues for the nation (combination of female and male symbols in middle forming the  $\infty$ -symbol). The bulb represents technological enlightenment which can be achieved by reading and studying (shown by book). The base of the bulb (shown by increasing black lines) represents prosperity.